Accommodation Pricing Schedule

Updated 1 October 2026, the maximum permissible interest rate (MPIR) rate 8.51%

This schedule outlines the accommodation payment options for residents entering our residential aged care homes. Accommodation prices vary between homes and room types. Residents may choose to pay their accommodation contribution as a refundable lump sum, an equivalent daily payment, or a combination of both.

We are committed to providing high-quality care and services to all residents, regardless of their financial circumstances. A range of accommodation payment options is available to support individual needs and preferences. Eligibility and payment arrangements will be determined in accordance with the outcome of your aged care assessment and any applicable means assessment requirements.
